

Questions on A Certain Lady by Dorothy Parker:

1. How are we to understand the man's character? Is he a cruel person or oblivious to the pain he is causing? Why does he relate his exploits to this woman who loves him?
2. Does the title of the poem "A Certain Lady," give readers any additional information or insight into the characters in the poem?