

Questions on Death of a Young Son by Drowning by Margaret Atwood:

1. Does Atwood's poem provide any internal evidence to suggest it is not a personal, confessional poem? How might the reader discover that Atwood based the poem on another person's experience?
2. Does the knowledge that Atwood based her poem on incidents in the life of Susanna Moodie change your reaction to the work?