

Questions on The Kind of Man I Am at the DMV by Stacey Waite:

1. Why does the poem insist on the male / female gender dichotomy? What do you think Waite is suggesting about that dichotomy?
2. Consider the way the speaker describes the boy in stanza 2. What do you think the speaker is suggesting about masculinity?
3. How do you interpret the final three lines of the poem?